6. Principal's State of School Presentation Principal

PowerPoint passed out and went over. There will be two audits at the end of January for Bilingual and SPED. Construction coming along- I meet with them every Thursday to discuss progress. I allocated funds for after school programs. We have very involved parent committees, testing dates were presented. If the State of Illinois does not give CPS $480 million we will lose 1 in 5 teachers for our 840 students.
